MINUTES

The minutes of the meeting held on 13th July were unanimously approved.

15/29

ON-GOING MATTERS

- Repairs to pot holes are now completed.
- Cllr W. Hall reported, that progress is hopefully being made on the provision of fibre optic broadband for the village. Initial wiring should be completed by Christmas.

Cllr C. Roome offered to contact Kerry Bailey, Digital Derbyshire, D.C.C. to obtain a progress report.

15/30

VILLAGE PROJECT

Cllr J. Polglass stated that the “village survey” has been circulated, with only 5% having replied so far. He will summarize for the next meeting.

Concerns were noted on the problems that have arisen, on the blind bend situated at the “Old Chapel”, at the top of Chapel Hill.

The traffic, (increased especially with HGV’s), that meet on this corner has caused several near misses, and an actual collision.

Agreed – Clerk to contact “Highways Manager”, D.C.C. to request a site visit with a Parish Cllr & County Cllr S.Bull, with a view to some appropriate safety action being taken.

15/31

TRANSPARENCY CODE

Cllr J. Polglass contacted “Code Red” Ashbourne, but they inform they do not set up web sites. The application form for a grant from DALC has been received.

Agreed – Cllr J. Polglass to make further enquiries on setting up a web site, and fill in the appropriate sections of the application form.
