

HOLLINGTON PARISH COUNCIL

Policy for the display of items on the Village Noticeboard

Items will be prioritised for display on the noticeboard as follows:

1. Hollington Parish Council items, such as Parish Council minutes and agendas
2. Public Information, such as Police or Fire Safety information
3. Hollington village events
4. Events in nearby villages, prioritised in order of distance
5. Events in places that are further away, prioritised in order of distance

For the determination of 4 and 5 above, the following locations will be prioritised in the order shown:

- Shirley, Ednaston, Longford
- Brailsford, Long Lane, Culland
- Alkmonton
- Rodsley, Yeaveley, Thurvaston, Boylestone, Sutton
- Osmaston, Kirk Langley, Church Broughton, Cubley
- Wyaston, Dalbury Lees

Conditions for the display of items are:

- No items advertising or promoting commercial services will be accepted. This exclusion does not apply to ticketed events or events at the Red Lion, Hollington.
- Items for events will be displayed from no earlier than one month before the event and will be removed as soon as possible after the event has taken place.
- If space is limited then items in a higher priority category will take priority over those in a lower priority category.
- Promoters of events in a lower priority category will be required to accept that their items may be removed or covered if items in a higher priority category are accepted to be displayed.
